Orlando Loza graduated cum laude with a B.A. in Philosophy from California State University, Northridge. He obtained his J.D. from Loyola Law School with honors in the Intellectual Property Law concentration.

At Loyola, Orlando participated in the Young Lawyers Program where he served as a mentor for high school students from low-income communities as they learned about the law and prepared for a mock trial. Orlando also served as a board member of Loyola's Wine and Spirits Law Society and the Art Law Society.

In his spare time, Orlando enjoys exploring Los Angeles' bars and restaurants, visiting art galleries and museums, and birding.
